

Communications and Engagement Plan

Principles that guide us

Collaboration	Working with the community and First Nations to participate in scientific and engagement activities
Inclusion	Bringing First Nations, community, government agencies and researchers together to generate and disseminate knowledge
Capacity	Building knowledge to grow the capacity & capability of the community to navigate future impacts of climate change
Sharing	Knowledge sharing between First Nations, community, and management agencies to inform management actions and community values

How we communicate and engage

